

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

BY MCCLANAHAN, TROUSDALE & DILL.

Daily Appeal.

DOUGLAS IN NEW JERSEY.

In answer to the reports in journals opposed to him that he had lost a friend in New Jersey and France writes: "Now I happen to know nearly all the delegates selected, and I am not of my own knowledge that Messrs.

Burnett and Hanna, of the East District, Governor, Mr. C. L. Smith, of the West District,

Col. Wall, and Willard, the delegates at large, are open and avowed friends of Judge Douglass. And further, that Judge Douglass is a good man, and will cast the votes of New Jersey for him, as soon as it is made manifest that he is the strongest candidate. As an evidence of the feeling of the country, I may add, that the two other delegates appointed, Judge Douglas, who was a candidate for delegate at large—Capt.

Micahel of Canada—was definitely a strong vote."

LETTER FROM NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, April 10, 1860.

REVEREND SISTERS Having business which required my absence from our State, I will take a few moments to write a short letter to you. Nashville is indeed a noble specimen of an island city, and well worthy is she to be the repre-sitive city of our own, or any other State of the Union.

The most prominent feature of our great metropolis is the Tennessee River, which flows through the city, and which is surrounded by a number of fine buildings.

The river is about one-half mile wide, and has a current of about four miles per hour.

The water is clear and cold, and is used for drinking purposes.

The water is also used for irrigating the fields, and for drinking purposes.

The water is also used for
